Re: Request for Public Records by Rob Davis of VoiceofSanDiego.Org
on March 27, 2009 (Amended May 4 and 18, 2009)

Dear Mr. Briggs:

In response to your letter of June 30, 2009, our office will review the withheld documents to determine whether additional documents should be produced.

I believe that a lawsuit will be unnecessary and wasteful. Your demand for all 692 e-mails is overbroad in that there are apparently e-mails that are clearly exempt under the Public Records Act (e.g. attorney client privileged communications). However, the Voice may be entitled to more documents.

Our office is willing to take action to ensure that all the documents that should be produced under the law are produced. If there are remaining disputes after we have done our work, we can attempt to narrow the issues.

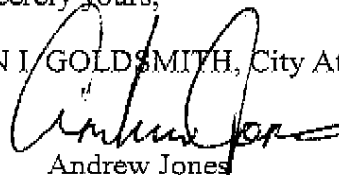

If your goal is to receive the documents, I would urge that you delay this matter for a week. Conversely, if you choose to file an unnecessary lawsuit, I can't stop you.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely yours,

JAN I. GOLDSMITH, City Attorney
