

The tax returns for Affordable Senior Housing show all three men are part owners of "Bayshore," but no such company exists in San Diego County, according to the Secretary of State's database for registered corporations.